

When you log into Skyward, this is what you will now see due to the recent update. If you want Employee Access or Financial Management, you need to go under Jump to Other Systems and select where you want to go.

Financial Management is where you will go to create requisitions and view past purchase orders. Employee Access is where you will go to view your check history.